EXPERIENCE

Bryan joined WEL Partners as a summer student in 2018 and has returned as an Articling Student.

Bryan completed the Dual J.D. program at the University of Windsor and the University of Detroit Mercy. Prior to law school, he obtained his Bachelor of Music in Jazz Performance from the University of Toronto with honours.

During law school, Bryan completed a legal internship with Wayne County Corporation Counsel in Detroit, Michigan, and served as Chair of the Windsor Law High School Outreach Symposium Committee. He also worked with the Veterans' law clinic and served on the executive of the Windsor Fashion Law Society.

Bryan comes by his keen interest in estate litigation honestly. Growing up, living and working at his family's Funeral Home in a small northern Ontario community showed him the importance of dealing with all end of life matters in a professional and caring manner. He recognizes the significance of this time in the lives of clients and enjoys navigating the challenges and sensitivities that accompany this area of the law.

When not practicing law, Bryan enjoys, travelling, performing music and cooking exotic and exciting foods for family and friends. When time dictates, he can be found on the golf course and has also been known to take part in the odd fly fishing trip.
