EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining WEL Partners, Alexander articulated at a boutique civil litigation firm in Toronto where he appeared regularly before the Superior Court of Justice and the Financial Services Commission of Ontario. During this time, he also gained extensive experience assisting with mediations, arbitrations and preparing for trials.

Alexander graduated from Simon Fraser University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminology and then obtained his J.D. from the University of Windsor. During law school, Alexander assisted with the Walsh Family Moot and was a Student Clerk for the Honourable Justice Lynda S. Ross at the Ontario Court of Justice. While studying, Alexander also represented the University of Windsor – Faculty of Law on their Men's Ice Hockey Team at the Queen's Cup Law School Hockey Invitational Tournament from 2014-2016. He was called to the bar in 2017.

Alexander has an aptitude for structuring creative solutions that accomplish the best results for his clients. His experience in various areas of litigation has also given him the ability to successfully navigate the multifaceted and complex nature of estate litigation files.
