

Sareh Lua Ebrahimi, LLB

BIOGRAPHY

Sareh joined WEL Partners as an Articling Student in February of 2019 and returned as an Associate Lawyer after her Call to the Ontario Bar in January 2020. Prior to joining WEL Partners, Sareh practiced at a law firm in Johannesburg, South Africa. After completing her articling in civil and commercial litigation, Sareh assisted the firm in establishing the Estates Department where she focused on estate planning, winding up of estates and estates litigation.

Sareh received her LLB from Nelson Mandela University in South Africa in 2009. Sareh completed her South African Attorney Admission exams in 2014 and thereafter completed the Notarial Practice and Conveyancing specialization examinations in 2015.

Sareh has worked Pro Bono on various cases as she believes that justice needs to be accessible to all.

Sareh is passionate about this area of the law and recognizes the importance of leaving one's affairs in order and communicating one's wishes to people who are competent, willing to listen and carry out the wishes so that the loved ones can focus on overcoming their loss. By utilizing her knowledge, mediation skills, and consulting with team members, Sareh strives to achieve her client's wishes while always having their best interests at heart.

When not practicing law, Sareh enjoys spending time with family and volunteering by participating in community-building activities.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

Law Society of Ontario

Ontario Bar Association (OBA)